

Exam Venue Information for

Southern Institute of Technology

The exam begins at 9.30am

Candidates should be ready outside their exam room by 9.10am

Candidates should be dropped off outside the main SIT entrance in Tay St. Free parking is available around the block in Forth St. The exam room will be clearly signposted.

What should I bring?

- Candidates must bring their own stationery – pencil, eraser, ruler, and pencil sharpener. Papers worked in pencil are accepted - answers do not need to be 'inked in'.
- It is not necessary for candidates to present an exam slip or other paperwork on arrival
- Candidates should leave their bags and any other belongings at the front of the exam room. Cell phones must be turned off and left at the front of the room.

How long will it take?

- The maximum time allowed for the examination is:
 - Grades 1 to 3: 1½ hours (finish by 11.00am)
 - Grades 4 to 5: 2 hours (finish by 11.30am)
 - Grades 6 to 8: 3 hours (finish by 12.30pm)
- Candidates may leave the examination room after 10.10am (but not return), so arrangements should be made for younger candidates to be met should they finish early.
